

LUTYENS TRUST AMERICA

LUTYENS TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP

Purpose:

To promote the appreciation and knowledge of the work of Sir Edwin Lutyens by funding a period of individual travel and research on his work and legacy.

The Lutyens Traveling Fellowship provides a $7,000 award for emerging professionals in architecture, art history, interior design, historic preservation, or the decorative arts. Fellows will execute a travel program oriented towards academic research related to any aspect of the work of Sir Edwin Lutyens.

Eligibility:

To be eligible, an applicant must be an emerging professional having graduated from a degree program in architecture, historic preservation, art history, the decorative arts, or interior design, within the past 15 years.

Submission Requirements:

- Research proposal with up to five (5) sheets supporting the area of study (text, drawings/plans, images)
- Completion of the program application, available online at <https://lutyenstrustamerica.com/>
- Two letters of recommendation
- Curriculum vitae and proof of graduation from a qualified academic program

Award Conditions:

- The recipients will plan and execute a period of independent travel and research, to be followed by a report on the results of the project. The report may include a paper/blog, photo journal, or sketch book and will culminate with an illustrated presentation.
- The Fellowship recipient will receive an award of $7,000 for all expenses. The first payment (80%) will be distributed prior to travel, and final payment (20%) after receipt of the deliverables.

Application Deadline: All materials must be submitted and received by January 31st, 2023.
